

CROATIA

As almost the whole world became illuminated yesterday by Croatia getting into the World Cup final _____ beating England, now let's have a look at some facts why it is worth visiting this beautiful country by the Adriatic Sea.

There is a quite obvious reason: Croatia is a very sunny place with its twelve hours of daily _____ in the summer months. Not to mention that it is very easy to reach, as one can be in the country from every spots of Europe _____ a few hours.

Croatia has been an EU country since 2013, but you should change your Euros to Kuna, because it is the _____ of the country. Prices can be a little higher, although you can get good value for your money.

As far as _____ concerned, you must NOT miss the famous attractions from the series The Game of Thrones. You can find the _____ spots of King's Landing, Meereen, or Qarth. In addition there are several Roman ruins such as the Roman amphitheatre in Pula.

Need a good swim? Have a _____ in the Adriatic Sea on one of the many _____ beaches even jumping from a rock. But do not hope for sand. If you are the more active type of traveller, you can also climb some mountains reaching the _____ of 1762 metres at Sveti Jure.

Surely, _____ you go, there will be party places. Especially this summer when the Croatian national selection has written history with reaching the football World Cup Final for the first time. Have a good journey!

currency

dip

filming

height

sights

spectacular

sunshine

through

wherever

within